

ZINIO FOR MUNISING SCHOOLS PUBLIC LIBRARY

- Full digital copies of your favorite magazines
- View magazines on your computer or mobile device
- Unlimited access to over 130 digital magazines

Would you like to read popular magazines on your computer, iPad, Kindle, or other mobile device? Regional library partners are launching a new digital magazine service. This service is Zinio for Great Lakes Digital Libraries, a new online service designed for public library users. We have over 130 subscriptions to popular and specialty magazines delivered by Zinio, the world's largest digital newsstand.

Zinio offers full color magazines – identical to the print edition, intuitive navigation, keyword article search and interactive elements such as audio and video. Any registered library user can read any of the magazine titles on most Internet connected devices such as a computers, e-readers or via a mobile app. There are no due dates or overdues – so you will never have to wait for a magazine to be returned by another reader.

The library's Zinio collection includes popular titles such as; Consumer Reports, Cosmopolitan, ESPN The Magazine, Food Network Magazine, Elle, Newsweek, National Geographic and many more.

All you need to get started is your library barcode number. Register at <http://magazines.gdl.info>. Zinio apps are available for most mobile devices.

List of Library magazine subscriptions available now.

Read the Zinio User Guide to get started.

For more information or Help, email digitalmedia@gdl.info.